

2 February 1983

MAU-3004

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director, FBIS

THROUGH : Chief, Operations Group

SUBJECT : Monthly Report--Austrian Bureau--January 1983

I. OPERATIONS

A. Monitorial/Editorial

- ✓ 1. The bureau's new Russian-language program got off the ground this month as [] the first of two new monitors, joSTAT us on 10 January. A native speaker who only left Leningrad a few years ago, she has been fully occupied in her first couple of weeks learning all about FBIS style and format. In the meantime, Chief Monitor [] has tentatively filled the otSTAT slot by offering the job to another promising young lady whom we hope to hear from in early February.
- ✓ 2. We also resumed full responsibility for Ukraine press and radio coverage this month after a break of almost two years when our Ukraine monitor, [], was assigned toSTAT Polish section.

B. Communications

- Our techs busied themselves throughout the month in a major re-wiring job in preparation for switching our communications system from the Autodin system to the new State primary circuit. With most of the work finished and barebones equipment in place, ✓ we are now looking forward to the CPU people making their re-programming changes in February so we can begin testing between the bureau and the embassy. Actual switchover will depend on the arrival of additional tone-keyer cards which are now scheduled to get here in late March.

II. ADMINISTRATION

A. Personnel

- ✓ 1. Slipping away in his normally quiet way, senior tech [] STAT [] bid farewell to over 33 years service with FBIS (STAT-ning in Salzburg) as he retired on the last day of the month, just a day short of his 65th birthday. We convinced him that he couldn't begin all those chores on his cottage in Reichenau near Semmering until he agreed to let us schedule an early February proper "Heuriger" sendoff.
2. German monitor [] continued her rise within STAT ranks as well as the pay scale as she was promoted to FSN-9 on 9 January, her second promotion since joining us two years ago.

B. Other

Bureau personnel had a preview viewing this month of the many slides that Czech monitor and "meister" photographer [redacted] STAT [redacted] had taken of all of us as part of a HQs request for STAT photographs of each bureau. In planning which poses were most effective, Senior Editor [redacted] ILLESTAT¹ to stage a few "special" shots to be included in a lighthearted album which we hope to have ready for pouching sometime in February.
